Dear fellow Tamils, Greetings!

I was called by a friend from Boston stating an article from Dr. Shiva Ayyadurai indicating that Harvard Tamil chair project is being stopped as he advised. It is true he called me and stated that it is a waste and there are many ways to spread Tamil. I told him to give his ideas and if appropriate will work with him. I never said that we will stop the initiative and said that it not me alone any longer and worldwide Tamils are behind.

All I can assure the fellow Tamil enthusiasts that our Mission will continue and we are near the finish line. I can even promise you that this will be completed as planned regardless further false propoganda.

This is not meant to show any arrogance but to simply illustrate my commitment. When I started this I did not anticipate such an enormous support. Thank all the supporters. We will get this done and will do it right and prove world our passion and focus.

Thank you all.

-- Dr. Vijay Janakiraman

I stand by unwavering in my faith in the Strength of Tamil Annal, Truth, Integrity and Honesty of this noble endeavor. Dark clouds usually pass by causing temporary darkness, we can never stray our course due to the transient darkness.

It is, as stated beautifully by Janakiraman Ayya, this endeavor is not happening by a person, or a group of persons but a power beyond our imagination and comprehension initiated this through the CHOSEN Janakiraman Ayya and all others after him to carry and complete the mission. Only that FORCE that trigger started this movement alone can stop it.

No place, no institution is beyond suspect. Harvard had, has and will withstand trials and tribulations! Ultimately, TRUTH WILL PREVAIL. Keep the FAITH and please move forward with unwavering resolution and conviction.

May Tamil Annai bless you all, true believers! God bless Janakiraman Ayya and every one of you with strength to face the music and challenges yet to come and confront us.
